

LOVE RADIO?

RADIO REGEN SHORT COURSE IN RADIO PRODUCTION

What is the course about?

Radio Regen is Manchester's only specialist accredited radio training centre, offering a 12 week short course in radio production. The course provides a wide variety of radio skills, including how to plan a production, write a script, put together a report and interview guests. You could even get your work broadcast. If you have been out of work and want to brush up your skills and boost your confidence this is perfect for you – the employability modules within the course will assist in your access to employment.

The course includes:

- An introduction to radio production
- Use of recording equipment
- Operating a studio
- Interview and questioning skills
- Digital sound editing
- Microphone techniques
- Research for radio
- Making small features
- Script writing
- Putting a show together
- Preparation for work
- Working towards goals

This course will enable you to:

- Make your own radio shows
- Learn new skills
- Meet new people
- Create your own audio show reel
- Gain a nationally recognised qualification

RADIO REGEN

Visit : www.radioregen.org

These elements are delivered via practical workshops, group work and informal lectures. Students are assessed on a portfolio of evidence, coursework and audio. On successful completion of the course, students will be awarded Level 1 BTEC units in Radio Production.

When is the course run?

The next course starts 26th September 2011. It is 12 hours a week for 12 weeks, running Mondays & Tuesdays, 10am till 5.00pm.

Where is the course held?

Radio Regen is at 12 Hilton Street Manchester M1 1JF, situated in the Northern Quarter between Oldham St and Stevenson Square.

Contact and apply

For further information or to request an application please contact us on:

Tel: 0161 237 5012

Email: info@radioregen.org

Entry Requirements:

There are no formal entry requirements but students must be interested in radio and be motivated to study.

How much will the course cost?

Finance towards fees is available if you are in receipt of JSA. Please ring Manchester College Guidance 0161 953 5995 for information on fee remission.

